

CALLING ALL GAMERS, ARTISTS, AND STORY TELLERS!

THREADS is a brand-new fantasy gaming universe under development by GAME GEAR USA.

Starting with a world map and an origin story we are crowd sourcing the world of URTH and we're asking YOU to join us!

A select group of gamers, artists and story tellers will be chosen to share in the creation of Urth. Those empowered to collaborate will receive early access to game playtesting, and given the tools to write, draw, and develop other material for the game and its setting. For your efforts you will be recognized and earn free merchandise. You may also receive travel reimbursement and free entry to conventions and game events around the world. Each THREAD SPINNER will also be assigned a real-world territory to manage as judges and event coordinators sanctioned as part of the official THREADS Organized Play league.

As a Thread Spinner you will be invited to create and run tournaments and other game play events at your local game retailers, conventions and other venues in your area. Will it be fun? You bet! Will you be the envy of all your friends? No doubt! Will you walk with a certain new swagger and own cool swag which no one else can get? Certainly! So, what are you waiting for? Apply today using the guidelines below!

What is THREADS?

THREADS is a revolutionary new fantasy game system, featuring in person duels using a smart phone and other collectible gear. We cannot say more! Only those chosen to be Thread Spinners will be in the know until all is revealed to the world at large. An Oath of Secrecy will be required so that nothing gets out until our creative fabric has been fully woven!

Did we mention that you should apply to be on the ground floor of THREADS?! DO IT NOW PLEASE!
